(By SCOOP.)

In national sports, both amateur and professional, America can be right proud of her athletic prowess. But in spite of the war, which has hurt international games, and has dragged many prominent figures in international competition for prizes into international competition for gore, the old U.S. A. has never remined much of that supremacy, lost to the champions of Great Britai nand France.

Club Owners Do Not Read ilv Fall for Idea of Extending Fall Windups of Big League Seasons-No. Action Taken

NEW YORK, Jan. 2 - Although there nates regarding the advisability of increasing the number of games to be played in future world's series, the club-owners realize that the proposition is one of many angles and are slow to take official action on the proposal. Two plans were suggested. One called for nine games, of which five were necessary to win the title receipts of the first five played. The other proposition was for an elevenseries with six victories to clinch the championship, the players to share in the proceeds of the first five or six
